SECOND ATTACK IN THE AREA IN 2 DAYS

Man killed in leopard attack in Dahod dist

60-year-old woman also injured in Limkheda taluka

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE
VADODARA, MAY 24

A 45-YEAR-OLD man was killed in a leopard attack at Pada village in Dahod district's Limkheda taluka in the early hours of Wednesday. A 60-year-old woman was left grievously injured by the same leopard, causing panic in the area.

The incident occurred when Champa Kanu Chauhan (60) and Ramesh Ratna Chauhan (45) were sleeping in the courtyard of their respective homes. According to forest department officials, the leopard first attacked Champa in the courtyard of her house and then made its way to Ramesh, who suffered critical injuries.

While both were rushed to the Zydus civil hospital in Dahod, Ramesh had to be referred to Vadodara's S S G hospital. He breathed his last on his way to Vadodara, the officials added.

The leopard managed to escape in the panic and pandemonium that ensued in the village following the two attacks. Champa is said to be recovering from her serious injuries.

This is the second leopard attack in the area in two days. On Monday night, a leopard had attacked two children at Kulpuri village of the taluka inside their home. The incident had occurred when the father of the children accidentally left the door open during the night, giving the big cat access to the two children, who were fast asleep.

The two children were rushed to Zydus hospital for treatment after they sustained injuries on their face.

Earlier this week, a farmer was seriously injured after being attacked by a leopard in Bhaniya village of Gir forest early – the 12th such incident in Amreli district in about two weeks. Two children were killed in the previous attacks.

One child each was killed in such attacks in Karjala village of Savarkundla taluka and Katar village of Rajula talukas early this month.

Congress demands HC-monitored probe into Gandhinagar 'land scam' worth Rs 10,000 cr

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE
AHMEDABAD, MAY 24

THE CONGRESS Wednesday demanded a High Court-monitored probe into a "land scam" worth Rs 10,000 crore in Mulasana village of Kalol taluka in Gandhinagar.

According to the allegations flagged by Congress party leader in the Gujarat Assembly, Amit Chavda, the land meant for sheltering cows in a panjrapole has been diverted for commercial use through a "conspiracy hatched by politicians, officials and builders" in the state. He alleged that only three government officials, including SK Langa – a former district collector of Gandhinagar, have been named in the police FIR, while senior politicians and officials have been left off.

"A land scam worth Rs 10,000 crore has become public in Mulasana village. In 2018, one Hirachand Patel and Sindh Sulaiman Kasambhai gave land to be a panjrapole for 99 years. Initially, the land was used for sheltering cows, but as the urban areas grew, a conspiracy was hatched by politicians, officials and builders... The land was turned into non-agriculture and now constructions have begun without necessary permissions," Chavda claimed while addressing mediapersons at Gandhinagar.

Alleging irregularities committed by the former Vijay Rupani government, Chavda said, "A case has been lodged against a retired district collector and two other officials. Can these lower-rung officials act independently for a land parcel of such a high value? Why is the then chief minister, deputy chief minister, revenue minister and other officials not named in the FIR?"

The Congress leader said the irregularities surrounding the land parcel in Kalol continued even during the Bhupendra Patel government. "The land was turned into non-agriculture under the supervision of the state government. Construction began on this land without necessary permission and nobody stopped it. Why is the current government not restoring the land parcel as agricultural land?" he said, adding that the Patel government was also hand in gloves with the real-estate developers.

However, Rupani denied the allegations saying it was he who had acted upon complaints and initiated an inquiry against former district collector SK Langa in 2020. "Amitbhai (Congress leader) is only trying to incite by mentioning panjrapole. It is we who have initiated the inquiry. Our governments have acted against IAS officers who have done wrong and this Langa case is one of them," Rupani added.

The former chief minister said the Bhupendra Patel government in the state would not spare anyone once the inquiry ends.

"People know us well. They know who is honest and who is corrupt. The allegations made by Amitbhai are baseless," Rupani said.

The BJP had replaced Rupani and his entire council of ministers ahead of the December 2022 elections. The party had replaced Rupani with first-time MLA Bhupendra Patel.
